Silver Anniversary Banquet

Center for Happiness and Awesome Insights

For Conservative, Reform, non-affiliates and any Jew who moves!

May the Schwartz(ie) be with you!

Statement of Purpose

Rabbi Shlomo & Olivia Schwartz are the founders and directors of the Chai Center, which is a very non-profit organization (with state & federal tax-exempt status) dedicated to serving the Jewish community of greater Los Angeles with:

Couples clubs, singles parties, Shabbat dinners, holiday celebrations, classes, spa retreats, lectures, counseling and rabbinical officiation at life cycle events.

We are best known for our innovative free High Holiday services & communal Passover Seders (both advertised in the Sunday calendar section of the L.A. Times)

Our most popular on-going event is a more than full course "Dinner for 60 strangers" (30 couples or 60 singles) every Friday evening at our home. The Shabbat dinner is gratis, but you do need to RSVP in advance.

We also teach a variety of classes during the week on different topics of Judaism, flavored with deeper spiritual meanings, explained in contemporary language.

We currently have an entertainment division with amazing Shabbat dinners at the world famous Sundance and Cannes film festivals. We also have a women's division with "women only classes" and weekend spa retreats.

All our activities require no prior background for your total enjoyment. We are for any Jew that moves!

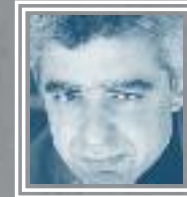

Honoring Joyce & Stanley Black with the Chesed Award

Love of family and friends, commitment to philanthropy and dedication to Israel are the central life themes of Joyce & Stanley Black
